Message of Condolences from China

Pyongyang, December 19 (KCNA) -- The Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea, the WPK Central Military Commission, the National Defence Commission of the DPRK, the Presidium of the Supreme People's Assembly of the DPRK and the DPRK Cabinet received a message from the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China, the Standing Committee of the Chinese National People's Congress, the State Council and the Central Military Commission of the People's Republic of China on Monday expressing condolences over the demise of leader Kim Jong Il.

The message said:

Upon hearing the shocking news that Kim Jong Il, general secretary of the Workers' Party of Korea, chairman of the National Defence Commission of the DPRK and supreme commander of the Korean People's Army, passed away to our sorrow, we express with bitterest grief most profound condolences and sincerest sympathy to all the Korean people.

Kim Jong Il was the great leader of the WPK and the DPRK. He devoted energy all his life to the great cause of the Korean people for building Korean-style thriving socialist nation and performed immortal historic feats.

Kim Jong Il was a close friend of the Chinese people. It was with great enthusiasm that he carried forward and developed the traditional Sino-DPRK friendship provided and cultivated by the revolutionaries of the elder generation of the two countries, forged close relations with the Chinese leaders and dynamically promoted the steady development of the relations of good neighborliness, friendship and cooperation between China and the DPRK.

The Chinese party, government and people profoundly grieve over the demise of Kim Jong Il and the Chinese people will always miss him.

Though he passed away all of a sudden, he will live in the hearts of the Korean people forever.

We are convinced that the Korean people will overcome sorrow and display strength under the leadership of Kim Jong Un, united close around the WPK, true to the behests of Kim Jong Il, and make uninterrupted advances to build a thriving socialist nation and achieve lasting peace on the Korean Peninsula.

China and the DPRK are linked with each other with a mountain and rivers and are sharing weal and woe. It is the consistent policy of the Chinese party and government to steadily consolidate and develop the traditional Sino-DPRK friendly and cooperative relations.

We are convinced that the friendship between the two parties, countries and peoples of China and the DPRK will surely continue to grow stronger thanks to the concerted efforts of both sides.

The Chinese people will as always stand by the side of the Korean people.

Kim Jong Il is immortal.

She said in bitter grief:

We were seized with indescribable sorrow upon hearing the sad news of demise of Kim Jong Il.

All of us, looking up to the sky of Pyongyang, bitterly cried "General, our father, you should not leave us behind. Rise up, please."

We have wished him good health as he has been shouldering upon himself the heavy responsibility of the revolution.

Now we cannot meet the great general any more. How lamentable it is.

He took utmost care of children of the comrades who fell in action while fighting alongside President Kim Il Sung.

We keenly felt he was our real father.

His sense of moral obligation went beyond the border of the country.

The history of his noble revolutionary obligation will shine forever.

Kim Jong Il, our kind-hearted father, is always with us.

Foreign Media Reports Mourning Demise of Kim Jong Il

Pyongyang, December 25 (KCNA) -- Media of different countries continue giving wide publicity to events held in the DPRK to mourn the demise of leader Kim Jong Il in humblest reverence.

The Xinhua News Agency of China said on Wednesday that though snow fell in Pyongyang the Korean people expressed condolences over the demise of supreme leader Kim Jong Il.

It went on:

The mourning place at Kim Il Sung Square where major events would take place is crowded with an endless stream of Pyongyangites visiting it to express condolences.

Some mourners were calmly weeping when they were paying silent tribute after laying flowers and some others were reluctant to leave there even after observing silence, their backs bent and choked with tears.

People's Website, an Internet homepage of China, posted an article, saying that snow began to fall in Pyongyang at dawn on Wednesday but this could not prevent Pyongyangites from their mourning the demise of supreme leader Kim Jong Il.

The Voice of Russia aired a program on the same day under the title "Total of more than five million citizens mourn the leader's demise in the capital city of the DPRK."

It said: An endless stream of people is climbing Mansu Hill where the statue of President Kim Il Sung stands.

Their number reached 450,000 at dawn of Tuesday and it went beyond 800,000 at noon.

The Dec. 20 issue of the Cuban newspaper Granma said under the title "Korean people weeping bitterly over the loss of their leader."

The Korean people are stricken with bitter grief and sorrow over their leader's demise, the great loss.

But they are now full of undisputed faith that Kim Jong Un, vice-chairman of the Central Military Commission of the Workers' Party of Korea, will lead Korean revolution to victory.

Chinese Mourn Demise of Kim Jong Il

Pyongyang, December 26 (KCNA) -- Words fail to describe the grief over the sudden demise of Kim Jong Il, the great leader of the Korean people and close friend of the Chinese people, said Zhang Jinquan, son of Zhang Weihua, a Chinese anti-Japanese revolutionary martyr, when interviewed by KCNA Monday.

He went on:

When I heard the sad news that Comrade Kim Jong Il passed away, over TV and radio in China, I was all at sea how to tide over the days to come.

I could hardly believe his demise as I watched the TV showing him conducting energetic activities by visiting China twice this year.

All my family members wept bitterly.

We rushed here, finding no way to keep back the grief over his demise.

It is an obligation for our family to mourn his demise.

General Kim Jong Il was the tender-hearted father of our family.

Whenever I received the loving care shown by him, I wished to call him father as I felt as if I were seeing President Kim Il Sung.

The whole life of respected Kim Jong Il was the noblest one as he glorified the tradition of the Sino-DPRK friendship and took deep care of our family with brotherly affection.

His demise is not only a great loss to the Korean nation but bitterest grief of our family.

I am confident that the revolutionary history of General Kim Jong Il will last forever thanks to respected Comrade Kim Jong Un.
